Dear Beloved of God,

“Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!” And with that our Easter Sunday Celebration of the Resurrection began. Arguably, it all went up from there! The music added so much to the worship. The crowds at worship, the gang at breakfast, the plethora of visitors all added so much to our worship. Oh, yes, and the Holy Spirit showed up big time!

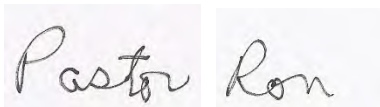

My thanks to all of you for your contributions to making last Sunday one of the most memorable Easter Sundays I can recall! I appreciated Jeff and Joyce and their kitchen crew along with all of you who brought breakfast casseroles or other goodies to add to the buffet. Never expected the room to be cleaned up that morning, but thanks to those of you who took it upon yourselves to put all the tables and chairs away. Thanks to the 25 people who comprised the choir, only two of whom were not members of Trinity. Tony does an amazing job! The Easter choir has sparked great interest in resurrecting our choir, stay tuned for details. (pun intended!) The Easter Egg hunt was another great success made possible by our youth and some young adults who organized it, as well as our candy donors and some of the Deeper Waters students who stuffed all the eggs!

Yes, the tomb of Jesus was found empty as some amazing and overwhelming events announced the resurrection. It took a while for the two Marys and the disciples to understand what had happened. It is still an awesome message: the one who died on the cross has been raised from the dead, never to die again! Even today it can be hard to fully grasp the meaning of that message and yet that is precisely what we celebrated last Sunday, as we do every Sunday!

May the richest blessing of Easter be yours in abundance now and always, even if you don't always fully comprehend the significance of the empty tomb! Thankfully, understanding is not a requirement for the blessings to be ours! What an amazing God we serve! Thank you for your partnership in this exciting and engaging ministry!

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Thanks be to God!

Yours servant in Christ,
