Senior Daily Living Center

What is a Senior Daily Living Center?

- Day time home away from home.
- A warm environment that provides a break for caregivers who may need to go to work, to doctor's appointments or simply to take some much needed time for themselves.
- Budget friendly. Offers drop-in hourly, partial and full day rates that are lower than the cost of in home care services. There are financial aid programs available through the Office on Aging and the VA.
- Nursing Assistance. With a LPN on staff, participants are able to have medications administered safely and health care needs will be monitored. Some participants' daily visit includes assistance with showering.
- A great option for families who are trying to keep their loved one independent and at home longer.
- A setting where your loved one is among peers and has the opportunity to socialize and participate in activities.

Offered DAILY to participants:

- Breakfast, hot lunch and snacks. The lunch meal is a fully-balanced meal that can serve as the main meal of the day.
- Exercise & Structured Activities
- Cognitive Fitness – Dakim Brain Fitness computers proven to increase and maintain cognitive functioning are offered.
- Music Therapy – iPods are available.
- Personal Care
- A fun and safe environment!

We welcome you to call or visit!
