PENNSYLVANIA INTERFAITH POWER AND LIGHT

4TH ANNUAL BIKE TRIP

By Karl Raynar

<http://paipl.org/>

First, I'd like to thank all of you that supported me for this ride. We made our goal to raise $9,000.00 thanks to your generous donations.

I joined the group of nine bikers on the ride from State College to Washington, DC at University Mennonite Church last Friday at 4 p.m. With prayers and readings from Genesis and Psalms on our responsibility to care for the earth by Pastor Marv, we rode to Plowshare Farm in McAlevys Fort. The owners, Micah and Bethany, hosted a pot luck dinner before we settled in for the night.

Saturday morning we were led into Huntingdon by Laura White, a former member of Trinity. We met with candidates for Huntingdon County commissioner and discussed transportation issues, especially the difficulties of creating bike lanes and paths in poor rural areas. Views ranged from environmentally friendly bicycling advocates to anti-environmental critics who felt that China and India were taking all our jobs because they had no environmental regulations. We left mid-afternoon and continued riding to Orbisonia Methodist Church where we spent the night.

Sunday morning after a wonderful breakfast and worship song service led by Pastor Ed Sauder, we were off to Hagerstown with a stop at Mercersburg Academy. The Academy Outdoor Club joined us in our ride 10 miles outside of Mercersburg. I had the privilege of riding with two impressive international students in their junior year. Fernando was from Mexico City where his father had a detergent factory. He hoped to study environmental science and find ways of producing greener products. Lucas was from China where his father was an urban planner. He wants to study social sciences to effect changes in environmental attitudes. The positive feeling that I felt about the future after meeting these young men propelled me the rest of the 55 miles we rode on Sunday before arriving at a homeless shelter in Hagerstown for soup and sandwiches.

I left the group in Hagerstown as Fiona and Antonio (from the Dominican Republic) joined the group and continued the journey. The riders continued to connect with communities and people of faith and visited the Pennsylvania offices on Capitol Hill to communicate the message that climate change is a moral and ethical challenge that must be addressed by all.

This was a wonderful opportunity to participate in an outreach activity of learning, sharing and increasing environmental awareness in our community. I look forward to sharing more of my experience with Trinity's Care of Creation Team and other members of the congregation.
