FALL ADULT STUDY

BY HEART: Conversations with Martin Luther's Small Catechism

This year we observe the 500th Anniversary of a German Monk named Martin Luther, who posted his 95 Theses to the door of the Wittenberg Castle church. That simple act initiated a firestorm throughout the church and the world. As part of our observances here at Trinity, we will focus on Luther's Small Catechism using these materials.

From the Facilitator's Guide –The Purpose of This Course:

Like the Small Catechism itself, this course aims to create faith. It is for adults who have never encountered the Small Catechism, and it is for adults who studied and memorized it as adolescents or teens. It is for those who assume that the original document requires no further explication and that we should simply pick it up and start reading (or memorizing). It is also for those who find scripture to be an inaccessible forest of words, the Creed and Lord's Prayer to be rote exercise, the sacraments to be obscure rituals, and Martin Luther and his innovations to be largely irrelevant...

So, the purpose of this course is to create space, at least, for conversations with Luther's Small Catechism.

The class will meet on Monday nights beginning October 9 and end on November 20, 7 – 8:30 pm. If you are interested in attending this class or have questions, contact Pastor Ron, TLCRevRon@comcast.net, or speak directly to him.

Cost for the course is $15. Location to be determined.

FREE VOICE LESSONS

If you would like to learn to sing better, the Nittany Knights A Cappella Chorus is offering four, free voice lessons for men of all ages, on Monday evenings at 7:00 beginning October 2 at South Hills School of Business and Technology, 480 Waupelani Drive, State College.

WELCOME REV. ALISON CORNISH

The Rev. Alison Cornish is the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Interfaith Power and Light. According to their website, she “is a Unitarian Universalist minister, and comes to PA IPL with a background in parish ministry, nonprofit management, multi-faith work, advocacy for the marginalized — and a passion and commitment to care about, and for, the Earth, which has shaped her theology and activism over the past two decades.”

Pastor Cornish will be our guest preacher on Sunday, September 24, at both worship services. She will also conduct an Adult Forum during the 9:30 am Sunday School hour. Even if you don’t normally attend Sunday School, you may want to mark your calendar and plan now to attend the Adult Forum on that Sunday.

CARE OF CREATION

There are various ways one can support Care of Creation efforts in our area.

September 20

Trinity’s Pollen Partners will have a workday at Trinity on Wednesday, September 20. They will be converting areas with invasive plants to native plant/pollinator gardens on the grounds at Trinity. Greg Williams, “a PA IPL board member with decades of environmental education and habitat care experience,” will be joining the Pollen Partners at their workday. Greg leads various groups to care for a number of areas here in Central PA. To find out more of what Greg has planned and how you can participate, please check the fliers posted on the bulletin boards around the corner from the mailboxes. You may also contact him at wacmbook@aol.com.
