SMALL DINNER GROUPS

Do you like to eat? Do you like to eat with friends? Do you like to make friends? GREAT!

You may be interested in joining a Small Dinner Group—that is to say, small group that eats dinner, not a group that eats small dinners!

This ministry was offered some years ago with great enjoyment. Groups meet at their convenience at a restaurant or in one of their homes. Most groups moved from home to home, some sharing the food preparation efforts. Groups met normally once a month and might do other things together like play games or watch a movie.

What each group does is up to the group.

If you are interested in being part of a Small Dinner Group, please, sign on the sheet posted on the door to Fellowship Hall. You will be contacted and informed about your group.

Please sign up by October 31st so groups can be set up.

FROM PARIS TO PITTSBURGH

From the Discussion Guide: “Produced by Radical Media in partnership with Bloomberg Philanthropies, Paris to Pittsburgh brings to life the incredible actions of individuals, communities, businesses and local governments to combat the threat of climate change in their own backyards. Set against the national debate over the energy future of the U.S. — and the Trump administration’s explosive decision to exit the Paris Agreement — the film captures what’s at stake for Americans around the country, and the inspiring ways they’re responding. The film is narrated by Rachel Brosnahan and directed by Sidney Beaumont and Michael Bonfiglio. It premiered on National Geographic on December 12th, 2018.”

Date: Wednesday, October 23, 2019

Time: 6 pm soup and sandwiches; 6:30 pm show time

Where: Trinity Lutheran Church

Questions: Ron Porter, Karl Raynar, Pastor Ron

A Freewill Offering will be received to cover meal expenses. All are welcome

October Newsletter/Bulletin

On average, nearly 20 people per minute are physically abused by an intimate partner in the United States. No community is immune to the effects of domestic violence, even our own. During Domestic Violence Awareness Month, we take time to honor and support survivors of domestic violence. We use this month to talk to our friends, families, neighbors and co-workers about the importance of healthy relationships and safe communities. Each of us can play a part in ending domestic violence. As parents, we can start conversations with our sons and daughters. As teachers, we can educate our students. As male leaders, we can set an example for young men to follow. If you or someone you know is experiencing violence in a relationship, please call Centre Safe. Centre Safe provides professional, confidential, and free services for anyone who may have experienced dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and for concerned loved ones. Inclusive of all gender identities and sexual orientations.
