From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Beloved of God,

In the Second Reading for today we read from St. John:

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be, has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. (1 Jn3:1-3)

What do you think of when you hear the word, "children"? Or, perhaps, who do you think of, when you hear that word? An older person behaving like a spoiled brat? A person who has not grown up? Or, do you think of joy, delight, exuberance, laughter, energy and delight? Not surprisingly, I think of my grandson!

The writer of 1 John tells us that we are all like children—in the best sense of the word. God is our parent who watches over us, protects us and provides for us. God is the one who loves us, who accepts and welcomes us, who will never abandon us no matter what we do or who we become. As we have all heard, "you can pick your friends; you're stuck with your relatives." In that same vein, God is stuck with us! But the God has chosen to do so! Fortunately, for us!

So, as we celebrate Easter and the Resurrection, we can also celebrate that we are children, capable of being as children tend to be, full of joy and excitement and energy. We sometimes plow forward not knowing what the results will be. Accordingly, we need not take ourselves too seriously, which is what Holy Hilarity Sunday (which we celebrated last week) is all about. Some joyful humor I was not able to include are these bulletin announcements created in a time when the cutting-edge technology was the typewriter

Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

The sermon this morning: "Jesus Walks on the Water." The sermon tonight: "Searching for Jesus."

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

Don't let worry kill you off – let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang "I will not pass this way again," giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

The ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

This evening at 7 PM there will be a hymn singing in the park across from the Church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be "What Is Hell?" Come early and listen to our choir practice.

As we continue through this Easter Season, may we give thanks to God for all the blessings poured out upon us, but especially giving thanks for our eternal childhood we find in our relationship with the Almighty—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who has a wonderful sense of humor. When you doubt that, go look in the mirror!!! I certainly do!!!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Ron
