BREAKING FREE THE TRANSFORMATION OF EVERYDAY LIFE

A Three-Day Workshop in Essential Spirituality

God is not waiting around for our peak moments in order to bring us to holiness. The Spirit of God is dependent neither on our timetable nor our game plan. Each day is transformative for those who can recognize the Spirit's promptings while the "stuff" of life goes on around us. How are we to comprehend the spirituality present in our prayer, our study of Scripture, and in life's daily processes of opening ourselves to transformation in Christ? And what is it in our everyday lives that seems to hold us back and block us in undertaking a more vibrant holistic-contemplative life practice? How do we prepare ourselves daily to respond to the divine initiative of the present moment?

Presented and Guided by FR. BERNARD TICKERHOOF, TOR

Fr. Bernard Tickerhoof is a friar of the Sacred Heart Province of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis. Fr. Bernard was ordained in 1978. He has traveled widely throughout the country in a ministry of preaching, spiritual conferences, and retreats. He has ministered extensively in Franciscan Spirituality as a formator in his own community in both initial and ongoing formation, through the Franciscan Federation of the U.S. and as a spiritual assistant to the Secular Franciscan Order at the local, provincial, and regional levels. He is the author of several books and articles on various aspects of the spiritual life. His most recent book, The One Body of Christ in a Quantum Age, published in 2024, explores the relationship between spirituality and contemporary science.

Save the dates:

3 Saturday mornings during Lent 2026.
